The mandatory recording and archiving of 60-90 days of programming is burdensome and unnecessary. It creates additional expense and labor, especially if the archive is open to the public. What's to keep someone from demanding to listen to your archive all day at your station? It's a bad idea.